

Sharon Blott
Psychological Services

Welcome to Sharon Blott Psychological Services. Sharon has been a Registered Psychologist since March 2001, and has worked within the public and private school systems, most notably as the Manager of Assessment Services at Foothills Academy, a private school for children with learning disabilities. Sharon and her associates have extensive professional experience in the assessment and diagnosis of learning disabilities, ADHD, giftedness, intellectual disabilities, autism spectrum disorders, and mood disorders such as anxiety and depression. More information can be found at www.sharonblott.com.

Sharon Blott Psychological Services is located within the Smart Executive Centre located in the Vista Heights Office Complex at Suite 115, 1925 – 18th Avenue NE. Please note that if you are using GPS to find the office, it will take you to the back of the building. The main entrance is on the South side. There is plenty of free parking marked Visitor or Smart Executive Guest. The Business Centre is located at Suite 115, on the 1st floor, to the right of the atrium. If your appointment is during business hours, please check in with the receptionist and she will let me know of your arrival. If the receptionist is not at the desk, you may text me at 403-612-3396. Please note that masks are mandatory in my office. All COVID-19 safety protocols are in place in the office for your appointment including hand sanitizer and a plex-glass screen at the table where testing is administered.

Please note that a flat rate is charged for all services. Payment is discussed during the intake meeting, and can be made by cash, email interac transfer, Visa, or MasterCard. Unfortunately, we are unable to accept cheques. An invoice will be provided that you can submit to your insurance company for reimbursement. We also offer direct billing for Blue Cross, Great West Life and other insurance providers.

Please note that the office is peanut/tree nut free due to allergies of many clients. We respectfully request that if you or your child is ill for any reason, you reschedule your appointment (without additional charges) to ensure an optimal assessment environment and accurate results. We would appreciate 24 hours' notice if need to change your scheduled appointment time. A 30-minute fee ($100) is charged for no-show appointments or last minute cancellations.

Thank you again for contacting Sharon Blott Psychological Services. We look forward to meeting you.

Smart Executive Centre, Suite 115, 1925 – 18th Avenue NE
403-612-3396/shblott@telus.net/www.sharonblott.com